GROCCERS ON PICNIC HELP IN HARVEST

Maysville Grocers Leave Banquet
Bound to Help Threshing of Wheat
—Nelson's Birthday Is Fi-tightly Celebrated.

In many sections of the Bluegrass state already the city people have gone out to the harvest fields to help the farmers harvest the great wheat crop because of the scarcity of farm labor but this labor scarcity had not affected Maysville to such a degree as to make this possible.

Just to show what they could do, however, members of the Maysville Grocers' Association who were spending the Fourth of July on a picnic at Phillip Gallenstein's farm jumped in and helped considerably in threshing out a field of wheat. The grocers were having a very fine time at their picnic when the threshing machine pulled into the farm. They at once left their picnic grounds and took their place in the harvest field with the result that much was accomplished in a short time. Mr. Gallenstein says he is greatly surprised that city men unaccustomed to the hot sun and the stubble of a harvest field could be so very efficient, he had forgotten that city men in great numbers had spent their early lives on the farm and had not forgotten the trade they had learned in their youth.

The Grocers' picnic was a great success in every way. There were many in attendance, in fact, most every grocer in the city was either present or had a representative. Interesting talks were given and Mayor Thomas M. Russell pleasantly talked to the grocers about the rigid Food Administration rules which they are all now having quite a bit of trouble to thoroughly understand and obey.

FERRY TO MAKE SPECIAL TRIPS

In order that the people of Ohio may attend the Chautauqua here this evening and hear Irvin Cobb's great lecture on his recent experiences in France and Flanders, there will be a special trip of the ferry this evening. The boat will leave the Ohio side at 7 o'clock and will return immediately after the lecture.

YOUNG CANDY DIES OF TETANUS AT HOSPITAL

Young Man Injured Several Weeks
Ago and Whose Foot Was Amputated Dies Rather Suddenly
Wednesday Night.

David Irvin Candy, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Candy, of East Second street, died at Hayswood Hospital Wednesday evening at 9:45 o'clock of tetanus which developed only a short time before his death.

Young Candy, who was injured on Monday, June 24th, while employed at the new Electric Light Plant, was thought to be getting along nicely and his family had expected him to be able to be removed from the hospital to his home on the day of his death. The dread disease tetanus developed however and he sank quickly until death relieved him from awful suffering.

The young man had climbed to the top of a concrete mixer to crank the machine when his foot slipped into the cogs of the machine and was terribly mangled. He was soon removed to the hospital where the mangled foot was amputated and until Wednesday he was reported as getting along nicely. In fact so well was he getting along that he was expected to be removed from the hospital to his home on Wednesday. It was learned on Wednesday, however, that tetanus had developed and at 9:45 in the evening he died.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family who certainly have had much more than their share of sorrow in recent years.

The funeral will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock from the home of the parents in East Second street with services by Dr. H. B. Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church and burial will be made in the Maysville cemetery.

PEOPLES OF THE WORLD MUST BE FREED—WILSON

President in Great Fourth of July
Speech Says America Will Not Sheathe Sword Until All Nations Are Free.

Washington, July 4 — From the shadow of Washington's tomb, President Wilson today offered America's declaration of independence to the peoples of the world, with a pledge that the United States and its Allies will not sheathe the sword in war against the Central Powers until there is settled once for all for the world what was settled for America in 1776.

Foreign born citizens of the United States, thirty-three nationalities, who had placed wreaths of palms on the tomb in token of fealty to the principles laid down by the father of this country, cried their approval of his words in many languages and then stood with reverently bared heads while the voice of John McCormack soared over the hallowed ground in the notes of the "Star Spangled Banner."

"Washington and his assistants, like the Barons at Runnymede, spoke and acted not for a class, but for a people," declared the President. "It has been left to us to see that it shall be understood that they spoke and acted not for a single people only, but for all mankind. We here in America, believe participation in this present war to be only the fruitage of what they planned."

"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise."

"What we seek is the reign of law, based upon consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind."

The speaker's crisp words as he emphasized the least which America will consider as a basis for peace, were interrupted by a tumult of applause and words of approval in many languages. The demonstration swept beyond the wall of khaki clad marines to the thousands of Americans scattered over the hills and through the woods surrounding Washington's home.

Elaborating the purposes for which the "associated peoples of the world" are fighting, the President reiterated that peace can be made only when the Central Powers agree to the destruction of militarism, the consent of the governed for all readjustments, the sacredness of treaties and the organization of a league of peace. He further forestalled any offers of peace by compromise which the Central Powers may make by announcing that the purposes for which the United States is sending millions of its men to the trenches may not be fulfilled around a council table.

AUSTRALIAN FORCES TAKE IMPORTANT VILLAGE

In Fierce Battle 1500 Prisoners are Captured by British and Australian Troops.

With the British Army in France, July 4 — Complete success crowned the surprise attack made by the Australians at dawn today, against the Germans between Villers-Bretonneux and the Somme—an attack which had been specially set to coincide with Independence Day.

The enemy was taken entirely unawares and the big-framed fighters from Australia stormed their way through the bewildered grey coats with little opposition—a veritable human tornado which left a wake of death behind it.

Hamel village was rushed and taken in short order.

Valre and Hamel woods, with their nests of cruckling machine guns, were passed through as the Australians were doing practice charge for their commander, and a line of enemy trenches east of these strongholds was cleaned out and annexed.

About fifteen hundred prisoners were in the British cages this afternoon, while out on the battlefield greater numbers of the emperor's men lay silent under the brilliant sunshine which could bring them no cheer.

It took the assaulting forces about an hour and a half to complete their work and at the end of that time they had, with exceedingly light casualties, wrested from the enemy a strip of territory four miles wide and averaging a mile and a half deep. By this operation they eliminated a salient in the British line and gained valuable high ground.

LAST DAY OF CHAUTAUQUA IS THE BEST

Irvin Cobb and Castle Court Singers on Today's Program—1919 Program Is Almost Assured.

Today is the last day of Maysville's big win-the-war chautauqua and it will probably be the biggest day of the whole week for the attractions are probably the best of the entire week. The fact that Irvin Cobb, one of the world's best known writers, will tell of his war experiences will attract hundreds here. The Castle Court Singers are coming recommended as one of the best musical features of the whole week and it is certain that the big test will be crowded both afternoon and night.

On Wednesday night the people were more than pleased with the Ben Grey Players' rendition of Shakespeare's "The Comedy of Errors." This company was said by many to have been the best Shakespearean company Maysville has ever seen.

The Fourth of July program was wonderful. Little Miss Alice Louise Shrode is certainly a wonder and she won the hearts of her audience from her first appearance on the stage and every time she walked to the platform there was a great burst of applause. Her whistling was a real surprise and her readings were good while her dancing and singing were given a big hand.

The Junior Pageant "Our Allies," given by the members of the Junior Chautauqua was all that was expected and each child on the program did his or her part well. The Junior leader deserves much credit for the good showing that was made in such a very short time. Despite the fact that the costumes failed to come the handicap was overcome and performance was first-class in every respect.

Senator Harold C. Kessinger, the youngest State Senator in the nation, gave two splendid addresses during the day and Hon. Edwin P. Morrow's patriotic address was certainly a big feature for which the local committee of the Council of National Defense deserves the thanks of the entire community.

Although there was some doubt as to whether or not there would be a Chautauqua in Maysville next year, it is now almost assured that this season of refreshment, education and entertainment will be repeated. The people appear to want the Chautauqua again and already a large number have pledged themselves to purchase season tickets for next year's program. There are not enough pledges yet, however, to assure the return of the Chautauqua and the committee urges upon everyone that they pledge themselves to the limit today so that it can be definitely announced tonight that the Chautauqua will return.

Before the program is ended and the crowd has left there should be something said of the splendid manner in which the whole affair has been conducted. Superintendent R. A. Swink has handled the affair to the satisfaction of all. He has made many warm friends in Maysville and no program has been better cared for than has this. His crew of college men have handled their end of the affair thoroughly. They are all clever young gentlemen who have left nothing undone that the people shall be satisfied, comfortable and enjoy the program. If the Colt-Alber people furnish next year's talent it is to be hoped that Maysville will be favored with the same superintendent and crew.

INDEPENDENCE DAY IS SPENT QUIETLY HERE

No Special Demonstration in Maysville But Many Attend Patriotic Program at Chautauqua and Hear Morrow.

Maysville celebration of the Fourth of July yesterday was very quiet, there being no special patriotic program arranged save the Chautauqua program which was patriotic throughout and the address of Hon. Edwin P. Morrow at Beechwood Park last night at the close of the regular Chautauqua program.

Although it was late when Mr. Morrow mounted the platform, there was a very large audience to hear him. The great part of the big Chautauqua crowd remained in the tent while there were many who were not attending the Chautauqua present when the gates were thrown open at 9 o'clock and all were admitted free.

A masterful address had been delivered by Mr. Morrow at Ruggles camp grounds in the afternoon but he is accustomed to much speaking and he held his large audience for quite a while in one of the best patriotic addresses heard in Maysville for many a day. His oratory was beautiful and through his address there was much patriotism stirred up among the members of the big audience.

Aside from the patriotic address of Mr. Morrow and the Chautauqua program there was no further patriotic demonstration in the city and the people of Maysville and Mason county celebrated the nation's birthday quietly at their homes. Flags were displayed from residences and business houses and the spirit of the day was manifest everywhere. Business was practically suspended and aside from plants engaged in war work, the majority of the local industries rested for a day that the employees might observe properly the day.

Plans for a great military demonstration here were abandoned several days ago by a committee of business men.

Quite a number of local people attended the automobile races at Chalmers and some went to Ruggles Camp Grounds but the great majority of the folks spent the day quietly at home and took advantage of the patriotic programs at Beechwood Park.

Taken as a whole the Fourth of July was well celebrated in Maysville and Mason county.

THE IDLE RIVERS

If any Kentuckian should take a position upon a promontory overlooking the Ohio and spend the day searching the stream with field glasses for evidences of its participation in the prosecution of the war, as a carrier of freight, he would see an occasional steamer of small capacity and smaller consequence carrying freight and passengers between river landings, an excursion steamer or so taking boatloads of women and children for an airing. He would find the river idle as far as the important work of America is concerned. He would see no evidence that the news of war reached the stream, running silently between wooded shores, its bosom bare of the fleets of freight barges it might support. In the war of the sixties some of the fighting was done upon the rivers. In this war, as yet, hardly any of the shipping is done upon them, although the Mississippi and its tributaries drain a basin from which must come a large part of the war supplies of all kinds, draining it to the convenient gulf ports.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch reminds Director General McAdoo, of the Federally Controlled Railroads, that the Inland and Coastwise Waterways Committee appointed by him approved a plan to establish an eight foot channel which army engineers said would be feasible and inaugurate freight hauling in barges between St. Louis and New Orleans. The Post-Dispatch points out that the same committee recommended spending $6,000,000 to provide for the use of the New York State large aenal, and that this has been done, but that the Mississippi project has been neglected.

The following appeal is made:
 Unless a mode of transportation other than the railroads, utilizing other than congested Eastern harbors and terminals, is found and utilized, there must be an increased shortage of ears, an increased congestion of transportation on the lines now open to traffic. The other mode of transportation lies ready to your hand in the waterways of the Mississippi Valley. If these waterways are developed and utilized they will take the coal to the industries and the produce of the factories to the seaboard.

The Mississippi Valley asks you to utilize the great system of waterways that nature has provided. The people of the valley urge you to develop the vast possibilities of the rivers and the territory they drain.

The Mississippi River and its tributaries sweep by limitless coal fields. They pass the greatest grain fields in the world. They reach vast ore deposits. They reach forests of lumber; they tap industrial districts in the heart of coal fields which can be developed indefinitely.

The Fuel Administration has recognized the urgent requirement of the situation by prohibiting further industrial development in the East and Northeast except absolutely essential extensions. It is diverting industries to the West, where there is an abundance of coal and raw material and other unused resources. Diverting industries to the West, however, will not solve the transportation problem.

The Ohio, a tributary of the Mississippi, is a natural outlet from the coal fields of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, and from timber and oil districts in the same region. The Ohio skirts the southern boundaries of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois and the northern boundary of Kentucky and is a natural outlet for the farm and factory products of these States. A generation ago it bore freight of all kinds and passengers and great coal fleets, a single tug transporting more coal than a freight train with two mognal engines could pull. Nowadays a shortage of ears is referred to when sufficient coal is not shipped and the river remains bare as far as a erow can fly.

That the Mississippi and its tributaries could be made to bear more freight than could be borne by the railroad equipment which could be provided with the same outlay and in the same time seems evident. That the prosecution of the war will necessitate recognition of the strategic value of the river system of the Middle West seems certain, and the sooner its value is recognized the better for the solution of the freight problem of the war.—Courier-Journal.

LABOR HOLDING UP WORK ON SARDIS PIKE

Reconstruction of the Sardis Pike Will Not Be Undertaken by County Officials Until After Threshing Time When Labor Can Be Secured.

Probably the greatest undertaking of the County Commissioners in the way of road work will be the reconstruction of the Sardis pike which for several years has been in very bad condition and which needs the attention of the road crew probably more than any other stretch of pike in the entire county. Work on this pike cannot be undertaken however until the labor situation throughout the county clears up somewhat.

County Road Superintendent Simmons yesterday stated that he would not undertake the contemplated improvements on this pike until after threshing time throughout the county and by that time he expects to be able to solve the labor problem by getting the men in the neighborhood of the Sardis pike to do some work on the pike to put it in shape before the fall comes so that it will be in first-class condition for the marketing of crops and for the hauling of tobacco to this market this winter.

The Maysville Tobacco Market will be able to pull this way the greater part of the Robertson county tobacco crop when this pike is put in first-class condition and as this was the main argument against marketing the tobacco crop of that section in past few seasons, it is expected that the local tobacco buyers will get busy at once boosting the Maysville market throughout Robertson county and in the Sardis neighborhood.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF NAVY'S DEAD IN MEMORIAL HONOR GALLERY

The Navy Department authorizes the following:

Secretary Daniels requests that photographs of men of the Navy who have lost their lives in service against the enemy be sent to recruiting division, Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, to be preserved in the Navy's record.

To perpetuate the memory of enlisted men of the Navy lost during the war photographs are now being carefully collected. As rapidly as these pictures are received copies are made and the originals returned to the owners.

Photograph of each man is then forwarded to the training station where he began his career in the service. There a memorial gallery of honor of a hero's corner is formed, so that for all time the faces of the men of the Navy who have made the supreme sacrifice may be honored by the youths of the future sent to the station for training.

Relatives of men who have been lost in the present war who have not received requests for pictures are asked to mail them to the department for this memorial.

All pictures should be securely wrapped after they have been marked with the name, branch of service, and training station the young man entered after enlistment. These should be addressed to the recruiting division Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. When received the photograph will be returned to the sender with one of the copies.

LINCOLN DIVISION MEN PRAISED FOR SOBRIETY

Chillicothe, Ohio.—At the Monday conference Maj. Gen. Hale directed company commanders to advise their commands that Mayor Walter Story had informed him that not a single case of drunkenness had been observed among soldiers of the Lincoln Division since it came here from Camp Zachary Taylor. The Mayor also told the commandant that not a man of the 84th division had been arrested on any charge whatever since the division came to Sherman.

"This is good news and speaks well for the men of the Lincoln Division," Gen. Hale said, "and I want the men know that I greatly appreciate the way they are conducting themselves."

MOUNTAINEER WILL SPEAK HERE

Special Added Attraction on This Afternoon's Chautauqua Program—President of Producing Company to Be Here.

Arrangements have been made for an added attraction on the Maysville Chautauqua program for this afternoon. This attraction is Rev. G. R. Combs, a native Kentucky mountaineer, who will give a program of folk lore and songs and will tell something about the people of the Kentucky mountains.

Rev. Combs will probably be a new feature on the Colt-Alber Chautauqua circuit for the rest of the season. His appearance here today will be for the officials of the Colt-Alber Company to see just what sort of a program he will offer and to learn something of his ability, but he will be on the regular program and all attending to day may hear him. He comes highly recommended as a second Burns of the mountains.

Mr. A. C. Colt, president of the Colt-Alber Chautauqua Company, will be in Maysville today and will hear Rev. Mr. Combs' program.

CITY CUTTING ITS OWN WEEDS

While the city officials are culling on the citizens to cut all of the high weeds in their vacant lots, they thought it would be best to see that the weeds on their own property were cut as well and the city force has been engaged for the past several days in removing high weeds from city property in various sections of the city with the result that the community in which the city property is located is made much more attractive.

MANY NOW WORKING AT GOVERNMENT DAM

There is now quite a large force of men engaged at work at the government dam and it is understood that considerable more is being accomplished there this year than had been expected by the contractors. ## THINGS FINALLY QUIET IN POLICE CIRCLES

Things have been unusually quiet in Police Court circles for the past several weeks. There has not been an arrest by the police for some time and Judge Whitaker has been taking quite a long holiday.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIERS

Mrs. Rena Bland is in receipt of a letter from her husband, Private John T. Bland, who is with the American Expeditionary Forces over there. It reads as follows:

June 11, 1918.

Dear Wife:

I am well at this writing and hope these lines will find you the same. I am having my health fine. Give my love to all the family. Do not worry about me for I am happy. This is a beautiful country here. I like my officers fine. They are so nice to me. Write me as often as you can for I am always anxious to receive mail from good old U. S. A. I am not learning to speak French very fast. A pretty dear wine, is a wonderful drink over here. I am trusting God each day and prize my little Bible very highly which was given me while in Mason county. I read it every day. Well I could write more but will not, only I wish to say, that we will all be home when we brown skin colored boys like the Kaiser.

From your husband,
PRIVATE JOHN T. BLAND.

NATIONAL G. O. P. LEADERS WILL MEET ON JULY 26

As a compliment to Alvin T. Hert, who was instrumental in the election of Will H. Hays as chairman of the Republican National Committee, the members of the committee in the States of the Southern zone will meet in Louisville July 26 to discuss matters of general forthcoming congressional campaign in particular. The zone system whereby the States are grouped each with a general headquarters was devised by Chairman Hays, and Mr. Hert chose to serve with the Southern group. The selection of Louisville also was influenced by accessibility to the Southern States.

MAYSVILLE SEES BIG HOLIDAY FEATURES

The people of Maysville were indeed fortunate in having a great amount of first-class entertainment for the Fourth of July. While there was a full patriotic program at the Chautauqua there was also a splendid patriotic feature at each of the local movies and during the day many people saw them.

Captain "Smucky" Shelton, who operates the gasoline ferry "Ada" between Maysville and Aberdeen at night has been having his troubles with the engine of his boat out of order for the past two weeks. Experts now have the engine repaired, however, and the Captain is able to take care of his business made especially heavy this week on account of the Maysville Chautauqua.

ARE ADVERTISED MEDICINES WORTHLESS?

There is no more reason to condemn all advertised medicines than there is to condemn all physicians or all druggists. There are in every profession and in every trade, but they do not last long. Take a medicine like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the true test of its merit is the fact that for forty years it has been relieving women of America from the worst forms of female ailments constantly growing in popularity and favor, until it is now recognized from ocean to ocean as the standard remedy for female ills.

Speeding on East Second street through the East End of the city has been somewhat subdued since the adoption of the city's new traffic ordinance but with chautauqua in session this week and many machines using the street there may be a temptation to "speed up." The police will keep their eyes wide open for speedsters and all disregarding the traffic law will be speedily brought to justice.

COUNTRY PEOPLE ATTEND CHAUTAUQUA

Chautauqua has been a Maysville affair now becomes a Mason County Institution With Many Farmers Take Much Interest.

The country people of this and adjoining counties have been supporting the Maysville Chautauqua this season in fine fashion. Folks who live on the farms now have their own automobiles and can run in to the city when ever they feel like it and can come to town for the Chautauqua and return the same evening.

The general use of the automobile has almost revolutionized life on the farm and one of the things it has done is to make it possible for the country people to have the same advantage in attending the Chautauqua that the city people have.

This was noticed in the pledges for season tickets to the next season Chautauqua for Maysville. The committee reports that a great number of country people subscribed liberally to the guarantee which will make it possible for our town to again have the talent offered by the Colt-Alber Chautauqua company.

With the large number of country people attending the Chautauqua has been changed from a Maysville affair to a Mason county affair and it is hoped that all of the people of the entire country round about will take a great interest in the next season's program just as they have this season and they appear to be getting ready to do next season.

WILL MAKE PLANS FOR RECEIVING NEW DEPOT

It is understood that the new C. & O. depot will be entirely completed and ready to officially deliver to the city on or about the first of August and by that time the ground about the new station will also be put in first-class condition and greatly beautified. Plans for the reception of the station by the city from the railroad company will soon be underway and it is expected that a very interesting program will be arranged. Several of the high officials of the railroad are expected here for the occasion.

If you maintain roads you help win the war.

SOMETHING ABOUT PRIVATE NEWTON BELL

Something about Private Newton Bell of Muses's Mills, Fleming county, who a few days ago distinguished himself, his state and his country in battle in Alsace is given in the following paragraph:

Private Bell is 25 years old. He was born and reared in the Kentucky mountains of Fleming county. During past eight years he worked as a farmhand on several farms near Flemingsburg and his employers speak of him in the highest terms. He was under the educational disadvantage of most mountain boys because of lack of schools, but once facilities were opened to him his quick, intelligent mind grasped the essentials of learning. Leaving here for Camp Zachary Taylor last September in the first draft, Private Bell developed rapidly into an able soldier and was fit and ready for battle when he landed in France in April. Friends say that it is impossible to rattle or disturb him, and that he probably dispatched the four Germans with the great calmness that characterizes his native mountaineers.

Some farmers in this section are said to have paid one dollar an hour for soldier tobacco on the last season. Many had previously paid four and five dollars a day for this work.

SCHOOL BOYS MAKE GOOD ON FARMS

Boys Working Reserve Will Prove a Great Help Not Only to Farmers But to the Boys Themselves.

Many of the boys who signed cards in the Boy's Working Reserve are now being employed on farms in this section. It was learned yesterday and even more of the school boys have made application for work during the rest of the summer months.

Prof. Date, who is chairman for this work, has left the city for some time and the matter has been left in the hands of Secretary Carl Dodds, of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce, who will be able to give it considerable attention now.

On Wednesday there was a twelve year old boy made application at the office of the Chamber of Commerce for work and Mr. Dodds will be glad to hear from any farmer who needs a boy of this age to work in the food crops.

The boys are receiving good wages for their work and farmers who have taken some of them report that they are giving perfect satisfaction in every way and are well worth the price they are being paid. The most of the boys are working in the food crop but some few have agreed to work in the tobacco during the rush season.

It is expected that when school again opens it will be found that the Boy's Working Reserve has been a great success in every way for the boys and for the farmers as well.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE GO TO RUGGLES

There were many local people who spent the Fourth of July at Ruggles Camp Grounds to hear the address of Hon. Edwin P. Morrow and the other features of the program. The Fourth of July is always looked forward to as one of the biggest days in the year at Ruggles and a large number of the old campers always arrange to spend that day at the camp grounds.

And as a general thing, the kind of men who manage the ballot boxes are not the sort that the women voters will go wild over.

FROM COAST TO COAST

A Remarkable Chain of Home Testimony. And Maysville Adds Its Voice to the Grand Chorus of Local Praise.

From north to south, from east to west:

In every city, every community; In every state in the Union Rings out the grateful praise for Doan's Kidney Pills.

20,000 representative people in every walk of life

Publicly testify to quick relief and lasting results.

And it's all for the benefit of fellow sufferers.

In this grand chorus of local praise Maysville is well represented.

Well-known Maysville people Tell of personal experience.

Who can ask for better proof of merit?

Ben. P. Fleming, constable of Mason County, 217 East Lee Street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times, my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Mr. Fleming is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Fleming had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. ## GREAT DAY IS SPENT AT OLD RUGGLES CAMP

Old Settlers Reunion On the Fourth of July Is Attended by Many People
—Great Address Is Heard.

The Old Settlers' Association of Mason, Fleming and Lewis counties had one of their biggest and best reunions yesterday at beautiful Camp Ruggles. It was an ideal day, the campgrounds were at their prettiest, and a fine crowd present to enjoy the day. The Bermanston Band was on hand early with a line of music that was just right. And they were not a bit stingy with it. The quality of the music was an agreeable surprise to all.

At the morning session the Rev. J. D. Redd delivered the best patriotic address we have heard from any minister. The reverend gentleman has that fiery, forceful eloquence that send the truths home. He was given rounds of applause.

Just at the noon hour, when the campus was overspread with delicious dinners came J. Barbour Russell's big auto with his chiming sending forth music through the woods. This was the signal for the arrival of the chief orator of the day, the Hon. Edwin P. Morrow. Accompanying Mr. Morrow were Messrs. J. Barbour Russell, Clarence Matthews and John Matthews. After being entertained to a royal chicken and squirrel dinner by Hon. Bert C. Grigsby, a half hour stroll about the camp mixing with friends both new and old, the crowd wended its way to the tabernacle where Mr. Morrow gave one of the greatest patriotic speeches ever heard in this part of the state. It was a message calculated to thrill everyone with a deep sense of their duty to our great nation. In his concluding remarks Mr. Morrow gave a rather optimistic view of the war situation, paying special tributes to the part our boys in khaki are playing in it.

Following Mr. Morrow's address came the Rev. J. L. Pinnell of Lexington. Rev. Pinnell is well known in these parts as one of our most promising young ministers. His address yesterday was a fitting climax to a great meeting.

The election of officers of the Association resulted as follows:
President, Hon. Bert C. Grigsby, Tollesboro.
Vice Presidents—J. M. Lane, Mason county; J. Luther Markwell, Fleming county.

Secretary—John E. Politt.
Treasurer—J. E. Thomas.
Col. W. H. Thomas retires as president after about twelve years service. During his successful term of office these meetings have grown from small neighborhood affairs to the immense gatherings from all sections that assemble there each Fourth of July. It was with reluctance that the Association yielded to the Colonel's desire to retire from office. It is to be hoped that he may live many years to enjoy these annual gatherings of his multitude of friends, and still not have the burden of carrying forth the work of the Association.

In the new president, Hon. B. C. Grigsby, the Association has chosen wisely. Mr. Grigsby is one of the best known men of this section. Having served as state senator he has a wide acquaintance with the "big fellows" of the state, and you can just depend upon it that he will have some of them at the Old Settlers' reunions each year of his official incumbency. Mr. Grigsby did a very patriotic act at yesterday's meeting. In keeping with the day he distributed about five hundred song books, gratis, so that the folks could sing the national songs.

The scarcity of farm labor no doubt kept hundreds from attending. All along the roads one could see farmers busy with their plowing, hoeing, and other farm work. So many rains have fallen recently that the farmers feel that they must make good every fair day.

The Campmeeting Board of Directors met during the day to make final preparations for campmeeting which begins in just three weeks. As had already been planned the hotel and confectionery will be conducted by the Board with Mr. J. H. Hinton as manager. It is intended to make these places as attractive as possible. The stable, auto park, barber and baggage shop privileges was awarded to A. E. Bobbitt. W. D. Hendricks of Vanceburg will again police the camp. This means good order as has always been maintained.

Cottages and rooms were being sought all day. President Lane was kept busy trying to fit everyone out with just what they wanted. Mr. Lane will remain on the grounds with his family, delightfully camped in their new "Mountaineer". He can be seen there at any time about cottage or other campmeeting matters.

Several families are already camped, taking advantage of a few weeks rest in the woods before the meetings begin. Those now camping are: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lane, Mrs. Rosa Polt, and Mrs. G. H. Hurdling, Mrs. Gertrude Peters and daughter, Marian, Misses Fannie and Ellen Herber, and Mr. and Mrs. "Billy" Sons. Next week many more families will move out. And for the next five weeks Ruggles Campgrounds will be the chief recreation center as well as a religious evangelistic center.

BOARD WILL NOTIFY MEN IN NEXT CALL

The Mason County Exemption Board is in session today and will begin busy listing the men who shall go to camp on the next call. This important work will be completed on July 18th and the list of the fifty-six Mason county men who will make up the increment will be announced tomorrow if the board is able to complete the list by that time.

Y. W. C. A. SECRETARY IS HEARD HERE

Miss Helen Barnes, National Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. spoke to a large audience of women at the Chautauque tent Wednesday afternoon and told them something of what women could do to help win the war. Miss Barnes was a very interesting speaker and was well received.

IRVIN COBB SPEAKS AT CHAUTAUQUE

The One Big Feature of Chautauque
Week Tonight Is Expected to Draw Record Crowd—All Interested in the War Are Expected to Hear Lecture.

Irvin S. Cobb, the world's greatest war correspondent and one of the greatest writers and humorists, will be the big feature of today's Chautauque program. Mr. Cobb will lecture at the big tent this evening at 8 o'clock on the subject, "My Recent Experiences on the Fighting Front in France and Flanders."

Maysville and Mason county is indeed fortunate to have such a man as Irvin Cobb visit here to tell of his wonderful experience on the Western front and he should be greeted by a very large audience. The last town in which Mr. Cobb spoke was a much smaller town than Maysville and over 3,000 people heard him. He is a native Kentuckian and this should increase more interest in him here.

It is expected that the Chautauque tent will be filled to overflowing this evening for as this is the one big feature of the entire week it is felt certain that large numbers of people will come to Maysville from all over this section of Kentucky and Ohio to hear him.

Thousands have read his interesting stories in the Saturday Evening Post of what he experienced on the Western front but we are given the opportunity this evening to hear him tell the story from his own lips.

SMALL CAR DERAILMENT

L. M. Walker, Secretary.

Mrs. George Wood died Thursday evening at her home on Lord's Hill following a long illness. The funeral will be from the Bethel Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in the Maysville cemetery.

Death of Mary Hayes

Mary Hayes is dead. When that fact became generally known in Maysville Wednesday, July 3, no greater sadness of heart ever prevailed among the colored people of this city, and hosts of white friends the news of Mary Hayes' death touched as deeply. Mary Hayes was a music genius—pure and simple, having been made so by nature and perfect training. She was the most useful and the most used girl for this public good in this city. Her disposition, her profession and her genuine religion made her perhaps the best liked girl in Maysville. Mrs. Bettie Hayes, Mary's mother, stuck to Mary during her eight months of illness as few moth-

MRS. ELLIS AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT

Woman Inmate of City Alms House Goes to Jail Under Order of Officer. Ulll She Consents to Remain in Institution.

Mrs. Mary Ellis, who has caused her city officials probably more trouble than any other person in the city during the past few months, occupied the center of the stage in Police Court again Wednesday afternoon when she was brought in by the police for having left the City Alms House without the permission of the matron.

Orders had been given that Mrs. Ellis, while partaking of the city's charity at the Alms House, would not be allowed to come down into Maysville and beg from her friends or gather up certain trash off the city dumps. Despite this strict order which had been explained to her she has been in the habit, according to the officials, of leaving the institution and coming to Maysville very often. Orders were issued for the police to pick her up every time that she was found on the streets in the business section and on Wednesday the police brought her in.

She was given a lecture by Police Judge John L. Whilmer and was told that in the future she would not be allowed to leave the City Alms House without the written consent of the superintendent and that she would be required to carry this note with her at all times to show to the police if it was requested of her. She was then asked to promise to return to the institution, remain there and behave herself but she evaded the questions of Chief of Police Ort and was again ordered to jail to remain there until she had made up her mind to return to the institution and remain there.

ers ever did. No mother could have given her daughter better attention. None ever did. Mary Hayes, daughter of John and Bettie Hayes was born June 14th, just 20 years ago. She finished the colored high school here four years ago and was one of its honor students. She joined the Bethel Baptist Church while very young. And at the time of her death she was still teacher of the Baby Roll Class, and Organist of the church. Mary Hayes was music teacher in the Colored High School here for three years—her training in instrumental and vocal music being secured under the best teachers in these professions. Her funeral will be held at the Bethel Baptist Church Saturday afternoon, July 6th, being preached by its beloved pastor, Rev. Robert Jackson.
